

28-5-2015, the House of Wisdom Institute organized a graduation ceremony at the end of the Diplomacy Training program, which was conducted over a year, the program was funded by the Committee for Charity and Relief for Palestinians (CBSP) and implemented by the House of Wisdom.

A number of public figures, members of parliament, and representatives of International NGOs along with the House of Wisdom Board of Trustee attended the graduation ceremony.

During the opening speech Dr. Ghazi Hamad – member of HOW Board of Trustees – spoke on the importance of conducting such programs which improves the capacities of the Palestinian diplomacy cadre where it can represent the Palestinians in a professional way. While Mr. Nabeeh Al-Banna from CBSP said that the committee will support such programs which improve the Palestinian capacities in addressing the world about Palestine and its suffering from the occupation.

Samia Hamada in the graduates' speech thanked the House of Wisdom for conducting such program and said that the graduate trainees are thankful to the institute for such program which developed and enhanced their knowledge and intellectuality.

At the end of the ceremony, the Institute distributed the graduation certificates on the trainees.
